Policy Statement

Twin Falls Public Library is strongly committed to protecting the privacy of its patrons. The Twin Falls Public Library believes that maintaining privacy on the Web is very important, and that informing its visitors about the types of information it collects and how the Twin Falls Public Library uses the information is crucial in the protection and privacy of our patrons.

Acceptance of Terms

By using the Twin Falls Public Library's website, you signify your acceptance of this Website Privacy Policy. If you do not agree to this policy, please do not use the Twin Falls Public Library's website. Your continued use of this website following any changes to these terms will indicate your acceptance of those amendments.

Disclaimer of Liability

The Twin Falls Public Library shall not be held liable for any improper or incorrect use of the information described and/or contained in the Twin Falls Public Library website and assumes no responsibility for anyone's use of the information.

Disclaimer of Endorsement

The Twin Falls Public Library is a distributor of content sometimes supplied by third parties and patrons. Opinions, information and content expressed or made available by third parties, including information providers, patrons, or others, are those of the respective author(s) or distributor(s) and do not necessarily state or reflect the opinions of the Twin Falls Public Library.

Security

The Twin Falls Public Library does not claim any responsibility for information collected by other websites linking to or from the Twin Falls Public Library website.

Third-Party Partners

The Twin Falls Public Library has partnered with reputable vendors to provide certain services to online patrons. When patrons visit a partnered site, they are encouraged to become familiar with that partnered site's privacy statement.

Linking to Third Party Online Resources

As a reference and convenience the Twin Falls Public Library provides links to external online resources, websites, databases, and domains. Guidelines are included in determining which external online resources are acceptable. Those guidelines include, but are not limited to, content that is informational, governmental, cultural, intellectual. Content that is for commercial promotion is not considered acceptable and will not be posted. The Twin Falls Public Library has no control over content on third party sites and resources. The Twin Falls Public Library is not responsible for any material posted on those third party resources.

Online resources provided by and/or posted on the Twin Falls Public Library website are made available at the Twin Falls Public Library's discretion. The Twin Falls Public Library reserves the right to choose which links to post deemed necessary and legally allowable.
